In an industry where the details matter, The Title Company, Inc. has set the standard for generations, and President Marilyn Wille is committed to making sure it stays on top.

Marilyn Wille is a member of only the third family to own this company, which began with Josiah L. Pettingil around 1880. With his son, Claude, he formed La Crosse County Title Company in 1931. Thomas J. Holstein purchased the company in 1949, and his son, William, joined the company in 1963. Under their ownership, Marilyn Wille (Isbell) became involved in 1971. William Holstein and Michael Wille incorporated the current company name, The Title Company, Inc., in 1985. Michael Wille became president in 1986, married Marilyn in 1988 and took over sole ownership of The Title Company, Inc. in 1989. Marilyn Wille took over ownership in 2006 after her husband died. Her son, Casey Tomten, carries the family tradition forward as vice president.
